Russians Tell Entente Peace Rumors False

POSSIBILITY OF "MANAGER" PLAN TOPIC OF MEET

Meeting to Be Held Tonight in Chamber of Commerce Rooms.

PENLAND TO PRESIDE

"Manager" Meeting Called With Widespread Approval of Wacoans.

Begin only a short week ago and meeting with instant approval, the City Manager Club of Waco has reached the point where the first well directed movement for the proposed change in the city management may be introduced. A meeting of this organization will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and a large number of men interested in the movement will be in attendance.

At the meeting tonight an executive committee of half a hundred men will be named to take charge of the work necessary before an amendment can be secured, permitting Waco to try out this plan.

J. M. Penland, president of the organization, will preside at the meeting, which will be attended by all members who have signed the membership cards and all others who are interested in the move to bring the new government plan to Waco.

Due to the fact that there are few men capable of holding such a position as city manager, an early search will be made to find the right man in event the plan is carried out so that the office can be filled promptly.

Considering the short time the city manager plan has been under consideration in Waco, the present favor it is meeting with denotes that in the mind of the average city taxpayer there is no doubt of the need of such an office.

Repeated interviews and investigation of the plan in other cities of the United States, by representative men of Waco, who are interested in the movement, tend to show that the plan is feasible in every respect.

Dr. Aynesworth suggested that the city could furnish the pen and feed the hogs by gathering garbage from the residences and charge a small amount for the upkeep. KAISER COUNTED NEW TRENCHES TO HOLD ALLIES

Believed This, With Additional Machine Guns, Would Suffice.

ARTILLERY PROVES BEST

Aided by Heavy Guns, the French and British Continue Drive.

(By Associated Press.)

The great offensive of the French army against the Germans from the bend in the line in France from Soissons eastward into the Champagne continues unabated. Numerous new points of vantage have been taken, prisoners and guns captured and violent counter attacks put down with heavy casualties. In three days of fighting more than 17,000 wounded prisoners have fallen into the hands of the French, together with seventy-five cannons. In Wednesday's battle in the forest of Ville-Au-Bois an enveloping movement was carried out against the Germans and 13,000 of them threw down their arms and surrendered. In addition 150 machine guns were captured there.

Northwest of Braila on the Danube river in Rumania the Germans delivered a violent attack against the Russians, but were repulsed, says the Petrograd war office.

Berlin reports the capture from the French in Macedonia of a position extending over two-thirds of a mile along the Creva Stena.

There have been no important developments in the campaigns in the Austro-Italian or Turkish theatres.

By Associated Press. British Headquarters, April 18.—The flexibility of their trench communications and the effectiveness of their machine guns are the two elements of defense upon which the Germans appear to be placing their greatest reliance in the present fighting. In effect the various elements of the more important defensive trenches enable the German fighting line to swing upon double hinges, so if pressed too hard one pivot swings back from the other. In this manner much ground can be yielded in a series of angular, crisscross retirements without the fighting front, technically, being broken.

Meantime, the Germans are employing more machine guns than ever before in their attempt to hold up the British infantry advances. As high as six or eight of these ghastly weapons are now assigned to each company on the front line and they undoubtedly constitute the German effort to counteract preponderance of all a cannon. The artillery, however, remains the great unanswerable argument.

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 18.—The lines were drawn today for a great fight between the administration and opponents in the house over the plan to raise an army by selective draft. While President Wilson was at the capitol telling senators and representatives that no compromise between the volunteer and draft system could be accepted with safety to the nation, the house military committee, by a vote of 13 to 8, adopted amendments to the administration bill authorizing calls for volunteers for increments of 500,000 and providing that the draft shall be applied only in the event the president decides the force needed cannot be raised and maintained under the volunteer plan.

Representative Kahn of California, ranking republican member of the committee, in preparing a report to be signed by the minority, will join in leading the fight on the floor for the administration.

He was the principal speaker at a national defense dinner given by the Pilgrim Public association.

Mr. Gerard said that Admiral Von Tirpitz in thinly veiled statements in the German reichstag and Prussian parliament in open discussions proposed the institution of unrestricted submarine warfare against England with the intention "when England should have been subdued by hunger, to come over to the United States and collect the price of the war from us." "I want to tell you," Mr. Gerard added, "that if we had not gone into this war Germany would have fulfilled its intention to come over here afterward and attack us and would have done so almost with the applause of the rest of the world. I tell you also that everything consistent with honor was done to keep us out of the war. Beyond that I am sure none would have us go."

RUSSIAN CALMS ENTENTE WORRY ON PEACE PLAN

Gives Unequivocal Assurances That Nation Will Stand Pat.

WILL FIGHT TO FINISH

England Heaves Sigh of Relief Over News from Petrograd.

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 18.—Assurances reached Washington today that under no conditions that are now conceivable will the provisional government of Russia yield to the overtures from German and Austrian socialistic representatives to negotiate a separate peace. The entente with this assurance before them, frankly confessed the great sense of relief they felt from the apprehension under which they have labored for the last two weeks that the extreme socialistic elements have so far dominated the provisional government through soldiers and workmen's committees as seriously as to jeopardize the integrity of the entente alliance.

The gathering of socialists at Stockholm, known to be fomented by Germans and Russians, was looked upon with dread and suspicion and it was feared that cunning appeals to the altruistic principles of socialism, the universal brotherhood of workmen and such considerations might force the provisional government to consent to a separate peace to terminate the war.

EVEN CROSS SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

IF FEVERISH, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED, GIVE FIG LAXATIVE AT ONCE.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, bad breath, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

ANNE AUSTIN IN PORTRAYAL SAYS TRUTH IS FEARED

Women Have Awakened, She Admits, but Centuries Will Handle Problem.

By Anne Austin.

It seems to me that it is a grand, incontrovertible fact that women have awakened. They are still facing the most serious problem and one that will take centuries for solution. The one big thing that women should strive for and have never yet as a whole attained, is the power to face naked truth. When the infant of truth is born to a woman, she seizes it with her head averted and immediately wraps it in the swaddling clothes of artificiality and triviality. Even alone, with only her own eyes to be shamed or dazzled by it, woman cannot face truth.

When at last women can ruthlessly strip the body of truth of all its pretty wrappings, and face unafraid the revelation, then we can climb down from the false and rocking pedestal where man arbitrarily placed us, and climb higher into the seat which he has been seeing empty beside him since Eve stepped down from the throne. But it will take centuries to do it, and the fact that women are just beginning the struggle should raise a cry of joy from the watching other half, for it will mean the fullness of life to him.

Men Look On.

We are in the first throes of this big thing. All women do want this thing, even if they don't want to enter into it by opening the door labeled "ballot." It is all furnishing a good deal of amusement to the male creatures who have been free since time began, but their amusement is turning now to serious consideration of this movement which promises to upset many of their cherished convictions and to take from them the monopoly of several goodly institutions, ballot-casting one of the least of them.

It seems to me that what women are seeking now is economic independence. Women are tired of blandishing their charms to secure what is their right. Most of us want to look clear-eyed in a man's face, the element of attraction eliminated, and ask for what we want and get it on the merit basis alone. Some of us can think clearly and deeply, and we want our opinions to have the same weight and consideration as those expressed by a man. But we must be sure to want only what is ours. We want no right to use the personal element for all that it is worth and then to get credit for accomplishment on the basis of mentality. We must stop fooling ourselves. The thing to do is to look our own minds in the face with the calm, cool judgment which we would use in sizing up another woman. If we have a good stock of ideas, brain grooves and inherent possibilities the cultivation of them is worth while and it is possible that we may get recognition of them sometime. But the hardest thing in the world to do is to fool a thinking man with false pretensions to efficiency and mentality.

Woman Less Prominent.

A hard thing for women to get used to is the fact that we don't figure so prominently in men's lives as we used to. When man was primeval, two things were necessary to his happiness, women and war. Although we have a taste of the last now, it is not the paramount thing in anyone's life. The serious business of making good in the world is engrossing every mind. The modern man is a complex creature. He has a brain which is driving steadily toward the accomplishment of many things. He is carving a place for himself among men who are ready to throw him out if he cannot prove up. He is seriously working on the problem of amusing himself and his family for the value of play is recognized. He is maintaining a family in decency and in honor and his wife as a helpmeet and as a companion gets just her share of his thoughts and no more. The young thing who leans fondly on her lover's shoulder and asks him if she is all the world to him deserves to have her happiness blighted if it takes that to blight it. No woman is all the world to any thinking man and she should be the last to want it to be so. And women are getting to the point where they do not center the universe in one man. A multitude of interests is crowding him into his right sized niche. Women are less sentimental, it is true, but none the less lovable because they can think, and it is questionable whether any man would want his wife to go to sleep again mentally.

We have, both men and women, caught a glimpse of a glorious vision. The time is coming when women will be free of men and therefore proud to unite forces with them in a more beautiful union than has ever been possible. The dazzling possibilities of real companionship or communion with the woman whom he has professed to love are bursting upon man's vision, and though the light is blinding at first, he is not shading his eyes.

My next story will tell you of one woman I know who is doing more to injure the cause than ten women who silently sit and shake their heads when the subject of women's awakening is mentioned.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

(New and Instantaneous Home Method)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new pelachetic process. It is totally unlike the depilatory, electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growths. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—in one's own home, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes.

A stick of pelachetic, with easy directions, can be had at any drugstore. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. Always sold under a money-back guarantee. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, bearing not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

With the local recruiting rooms crowded with applicants, thirteen men who had passed the requirements, filed by the waiting aspirants and marched to the Katy station where they boarded a 2:30 o'clock train for Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, yesterday afternoon. The last detachment of men leaving the local station is as follows: Fryar, Adams, Main, Price, Villings, Waldrup, Hammock, Pitcock, Franklin, Elder, Crossall, Sampson, Highland. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon fifteen applications had been received and passed upon.

DRAFT NOT NEEDED.

It will not be necessary to have any conscripting for the navy of the United States, according to the view of Recruiting Officer J. R. Hair of the Waco station. Hair said yesterday plenty of recruits can be had without resorting to conscription, the only step necessary being the easing up a bit on requirements physically.

BLACK-DRAUGHT A SPLENDID REMEDY

Georgia Lady Says It Is Best Remedy for Indigestion and Sour Stomach. Always Keeps It on Hand.

Lyerly, Ga.—Mrs. M. P. House of R. F. D. 2, this place, tells of her experience with Theodor's Black-Draught, as follows: "My mother and family have always used Black-Draught as a liver medicine, and believe it the best liver medicine on the market."

"We keep it in our family now, and have ever since I can remember. It is splendid for sour stomach, torpid liver, and indigestion. I gladly recommend it to my friends, as I feel it has saved me doctors' bills by using in time."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for seventy years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not acting properly, you may suffer from such symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless relief is obtained, serious trouble may result.

Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy in many of such cases. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities. Try it. All druggists. Price 25c a package. Costs one cent a dose.

The Feather Pump

Brand-New Idea in Women's Fashionable Footwear

Imagine a rich dark green kid Pump, to which is securely attached a flat rosette of soft, iridescent feathers, from the center of which peep two glistening yellow eyes and the jet black beak of the eagle owl.

Or think of a Pump of lustrous plum shade, adorned with delicate feathers, each of the same plum coloring at the base, but blending off into even darker reds, then tinges of purple and tipped with black. Or perhaps it is easier to picture the beauty of the lighter combinations—a snow white Pump with pure white and jet black feathers; or a soft ivory kid Pump with pearl gray and black feathers.

The Feather Pump Comes in All Seasonable Colors

The Pump itself is made of fine kid leather on a perfect fitting last, circular vamp and foxing. Louis wood-covered heel especially designed for the FEATHER PUMP. The ornamentation is different for each shade of leather. Natural feathers containing the colorings which blend in perfect harmony with the tone of the Pump itself have been used in each instance.

Something New and Novel

Dr. R. R. White, of Drs. Scott and White, Temple, Texas, in a talk made about the following statement: "The common habit of breathing through the mouth during sleep is both extremely insanitary and unhealthful. Scientists assure us that every cubic foot of air contains millions of atoms of lint, dust and disease germs. But our nasal passages are so constructed as to filter, moisten and warm the air, which is very necessary to the best oxygenation and decarbonation of the blood."

That the cold, dry, unfiltered air entering the tender air cells through the open mouth, over tonsils is, no doubt, the primary cause of most all early decaying teeth, tonsillary, throat and lung troubles.

The above from such an eminent professional suggested the imperative need of an appliance that would insure natural breathing during sleep. The result is a patent pending on the UNIVERSAL SHIN-SUPPORTER. It is for both adults and children, is neat and cozy, adjustable to fit anyone and worn with comfort. It prevents mouth breathing, loud snoring and for ladies to prevent and remove wrinkles, keeping the features round and plump. Nothing on the market, at any price, has any comparison.

All students, adults and most children will be benefited many times the cost, and to consumptives and all who have weak lungs it will be almost a crime if indifferent to the protection offered them.

Price—Ladies $1.25; Gentlemen and Children $1.00.

Can be had at Sanger Brothers Toilet Department, or Phone 1191 or write, enclosing price, and we will mail one promptly.

Dull Session Yesterday
in Waco Cotton Market

The American cotton market opened at a decline of about $1 a bale on account of the weakness of the Liverpool market. The break in the foreign market was caused by the raise in the price of goods cloth and the liquidation of May cotton. The dull session of the season for many days closed at an average loss of from 4 to 14 points. Texas spots closed at 10 to 20 points low. Good rains fell in the West and Panhandle sections of Texas.

DAUGHTER OF THE GODS
SOON AT AUDITORIUM

In this filmed wealth of splendor Mr. Fox has surpassed even his own extravagant dreams toward attaining the superlative in artistic and sensational productions. Not only has he invested a dozen fortunes in it, but he has taxed to the limit human ingenuity and has called forth the best in imaginative creation. With the magic of Aladdin's lamp he created a city that might have withstood the warring elements and lasted as a monument to his name for generations, but with the sangfroid of a Nero, he caused it to be swept away by flame in a day that the world might reveal in wonderment at the spectacle.

NEW BILL TODAY
AT THE ORPHEUM

"May Blossoms," starring Pearl White, in five wonderful reels of Pathe color, is the attraction at the Orpheum theatre April 19, 20 and 21. Pearl White is immensely popular in every civilized country of the globe. The millions who have followed her adventures in "The Exploits of Elaine," "The Perils of Pauline," "The Iron Claw," "Pearl of the Army," etc., surely flock to see her in "May Blossoms," her second, Gold Rooster play.

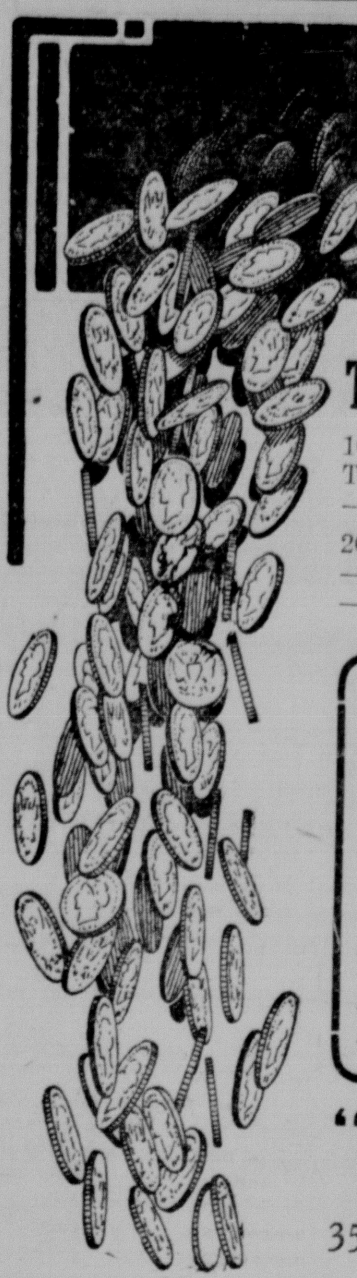

The picture is a strong drama of the period about 1848. Annabelle Lee, a sweet young girl, marries a scoundrel. He destroys all records of the wedding and before they have begun to live together, runs away with an opera singer, who ruins him financially. Annabelle marries her childhood lover. The other man returns. In a drunken delirium he tells his story to Annabelle's husband, a doctor. Learning of this, the girl determines upon suicide. The villain knocks over a lamp and is burned to death. The husband reaches Annabelle before she can carry out her intention and they are reconciled.

Many of the scenes were filmed at Carrollton, the home of the famous Virginia Carrolls and colored by the hands of expert artists wounded while fighting for France. They are beautiful beyond description.

America is short of all kinds of food—short on flour, meat and beans and potatoes and corn and sugar, and unless every one helps to save our food supply the Grim Reaper of Hunger will slay its thousands in fair America. Will you not help—will you not save—will you not be economical? Be patriotic, be loyal, begin to save, buy for cash; buy what you need from CASH MERCANTILE COMPANY and save on every item and be prepared. Help save America's food supply. We are doing all we can, but all must help. Don't delay. Be serious, be sober, be true to America and SAVE. DON'T WASTE.

WILSON AT THE FINISH.

THOSE who believe the world war is already practically won by the allies will gain considerable comfort from a book by Frank Dillnot on "Lloyd George," issued by Harper's. Dillnot as a reporter has followed Lloyd George, England's premier, thru many of his epoch-making fights for the last twenty-five years. He traces particularly the various Lloyd George eras in the building of an efficient war-Britain, discussing in detail Lloyd George as financial upholder, as munitions minister and finally as prime minister.

The Lloyd George touch has been the touch of forceful order. His Celtic imagination has been the yeast in the British dough. Dillnot, who writes sanely and without hero worship, can see no possibility of Lloyd George failing in his present position as England's dictator in carrying the war through victoriously.

Just as in England Lloyd George is England to Dillnot, so in America he sees President Wilson as the efficient force which will drive the United States quickly into her fullest power.

He sees at the close of the war the idealism of President Wilson and the practical mind of Lloyd George sitting at the peace council table, dominating by their greatness the lesser minds representing other allies.

COME OUT TONIGHT.

TONIGHT will be an open meeting of the City Manager club. Every citizen who believes a city manager for Waco means a more efficient city government is invited to attend.

Within the next few weeks sentiment will crystallize as to whether it is better in the near future to hold a special city election on this issue or whether it is wiser to discuss plans in detail and gain full experience of other cities under the city manager plan before taking steps looking toward a city election.

The News believes that the city manager plan will mean economy and efficiency for all voters and property owners as stockholders in the city corporation. It hopes tonight's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce will be largely attended.

FOOD VS. COTTON.

THE coming week sees the feed and foodstuffs campaign opened up in earnest in McLennan county. The Chamber of Commerce teams will tour the county nightly, explaining the urgency in this war time of the growing of things to eat.

The News believes McLennan county farmers will heed the call of the president and set aside acreage within their means for growing food and feed crops. There is no question but that prices will afford far more than normal profits and The News feels in the present situation that the farmer who patriotically meets the president's request will be at the end of the season find he has as large a bank account as if he gambled entirely on the fall price of cotton and placed all available land in that crop.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Beginning right is half the battle. Some women's beauty is only cosmetic deep. After you lose a thing you appreciate its worth. The larger the bluff, the smaller it looks when called. Just as long as there is a case there will be a woman in it. Some people's troubles are enough to make anyone laugh. It is better to keep the devil out than to have to turn him out. It costs more to avenge a wrong than it does to let it go by default.

Much Ado About Nothing

By Roy K. Moulton.

THE PRESIDENT. The cares of the job are upon him; He's weighed with trouble and strife; Confronted with harassing problems Which haunt an executive's life. It looks mighty fine from a distance To be the great man of the hour; To sit in the seat of the mighty And wield indisputable power.

But the men who cut wood in the forest, Or labor deep down in the mine, Have the jobs that for peace and contentment All posts presidential outshine. The night brings repose to the farmer, The teamster, the mill hand, the clerk, But there's nothing in sight now for Woodrow.

But worry, dull care and hard work. The most serious occasion is not without its bright spots. For instance, there is the New York lady who went to a recruiting office and applied for a position as fireman on a submarine. Firemen on submarines is Light Occupation No. 7893.

When I Am Gone

BY DR. FRANK CRANE.

When I am gone, that is the end of the world.

All its movements, of government, of wars, of business, of social redemption, of eugenics and woman's rights, of church, of art, of education, of finance, sport, romance, vengeance—the whole boiling kettle of human affairs will have disappeared, and "like an insubstantial fabric vanished leave not a wrack behind."

What do I care about the end of the world? The end of me is the end of the world.

When I am gone so many things will make no matter. The kisses of hot lips, the yearning of full breasts, the fires of passion, the impatience, the eagerness, the monomania, the quick breathing and aching heart—just a little handful of cold ashes of memory, when I am gone.

No more my footstep in the hall, my key rattling in the front door, my chair ready by the lamp, my bureau drawer full of neckties, my coats hanging in the closet, my desk cluttered with papers and books, the smell of my pipe through the house, no more me, nor the accoutrements of me.

How long will it take the ripples to die away on the water when the pebble has dropped in? How long before all is again as it was before I was?

How long before my name sounds strange, and curious people try to recall, and say, "Oh, yes! I did hear my grandmother speak of him once."

When I am gone who will use my French dictionary, a red book, colored like a meerschauim by much handling; and what will become of my little black address book, and my fountain pen, and my desk clock? I use them every day now. I love them, yet I know they are all trollops and will serve the next man as gladly.

When I am gone whither will all these molecules fly that make up my body? My congregation of atoms will break up. They will scatter "from Ponkapog to Pesh." "School's out!" they'll cry, and run away.

I am concerned about this world, as well as about myself, when I am gone. Think of the suns rising day after day and no me to see them, of trees green in spring and my heart not there to leap, of good jokes and no laughter from me, of pretty faces and no eye of mine to brighten. The world is good, and it is mine; what will it do without me?

I stew and fret, I hope and fear, I strive, I think things are so important; but, when I am gone, what's the difference? When I am gone! "Why so hot, little man?" Why worry?

Little Stories for Bedtime

Danny Meadow Mouse Is Terribly Worried

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Fee, fi, fo, Danny! What's become of little Nanny? If Danny Meadow Mouse could have answered that it would have saved him a lot of gray hairs. At least, that is what he says. You know worry is supposed to turn the hair gray. But as Danny is rather gray anyway, I cannot see how worrying could possibly have made any difference in this respect. He did worry. There is no doubt about that. In fact, he worried more than ever he had worried before in all his life.

You see, Danny hadn't the least idea what had become of Nanny. He hadn't seen her dodge under the old cornstalks when Redtail the Hawk swooped at them. He had been too busy saving his own skin to see what Nanny was doing. At first he feared that Redtail had caught her. But when he got to thinking it over he remembered that Redtail had tried to catch him and had come uncomfortably near doing it. Of course, he couldn't have caught Nanny, not then, anyway. But if he hadn't caught her what could have become of her? She must have reached the shelter of the bushes and grass along that fence at a different point from where he had. Thinking she might be somewhere ahead of him, Danny hurried along as fast as he could, but when he had gone a long way and found no trace of her he just had to make up his mind that Nanny was lost.

It was a dreadful situation. It certainly was. When they had started out from Farmer Brown's barn on the long journey back to their beloved Green Meadows it hadn't once entered Danny's head that they might become separated. He had known that there would be all sorts of dangers. A Meadow Mouse never can take even a short journey without running the risk of danger, and on such a long journey as this there would be all sorts of dangers. But Danny had great confidence in himself, and self-confidence is a splendid thing. He felt absolutely sure that he could take care of himself, and Nanny, too. And now before he was half way home Nanny was lost.

"If she hasn't been caught by somebody already she surely will be," moaned Danny. "And it's all my fault. I ought never to have taken her away from the safety of that barn. What does she know about the dangers of the Great World? If Redtail the Hawk hasn't got her Reddy or Granny Fox or Old Man Coyote will get her. She doesn't know how to take care of herself. She doesn't even know the way home."

Danny quite forgot that he was only guessing at the way home himself. "I always knew I loved her dearly," he went on, "but I didn't know how much until now. If anything does happen to her, and I'm sure something will, I just don't want to live. I'll let Reddy Fox catch me. That's what I'll do. But I won't do it just yet. I'll make sure first that I'm never going to see Nanny again."

"I hate Redtail!" he broke out fiercely. "I hate him! I hate him! I hate him! But for him I wouldn't have lost my Nanny. Whatever will she do without me to take care of her? What will she do?" And so Danny worried and worried. He lost his appetite. He was too worried to eat. He was undecided what to do. He would go back a little way, then change his mind and race ahead, only to do it all over again. And so he tired himself out so that at last he just had to find a hiding place and lie down. But even then for a long time he couldn't get to sleep. He kept thinking of all the terrible things that might have happened to Nanny Meadow Mouse. It never once entered Danny's funny little head that Nanny was anything but helpless. He thought of her just as if she were one of his babies, with no knowledge of the Great World, when the truth was that Nanny was quite as smart as Danny and a lot more careful.

"I hate Redtail!" he broke out, fiercely. "I hate him!"

Laugh With Us

An officer in the British army who is thoroughly disliked by his men was returning to the barracks one night when he lost his way and slipped into some deep water. A private happened to see the occurrence, and, running to his assistance pulled the officer out. The latter was very profuse in his thanks and asked his rescuer how he could reward him.

"The very best way you can reward me," replied the private, "is to say nothing about it."

"Why, my good fellow," questioned the astonished superior, "then you really wish me to say nothing about the matter?"

"Ay! If the other fellows knew I pulled you out they'd bloomin' soon chuck me in!" came the frank response.

Muggins was the possessor of very large feet and a very bad cough. He entered a boot shop and the young assistant turned the shop upside down to find something to fit his "out size." Muggins had just tried on the fortieth pair when he suffered an attack of coughing.

"It's a nasty cough you've got," said the assistant.

"Yes," gasped Muggins. "The doctor says I've got one foot in the grave now."

"I shouldn't worry," said the assistant. "You'll never get the other in; it's too big."

They were having a quiz in English history at a west side public school. The instructor was examining the pupils on their knowledge of the sovereigns of England.

"Who came after Henry VIII?" asked the teacher.

"Edward VI," answered a pupil.

"Right. And who succeeded Edward VI?"

"Mary," replied the second little brighteye.

"Correct. And who came after Mary?"

There was a puzzled pause. Then a scholar who had heretofore not contributed much to the progress of learning had an inspiration. He waved his hand on high, and being called on, answered triumphantly:

"The little lamb."

She looked with some apprehension over the gingham spread before her.

"These don't look like fast colors to me," she said.

"Indeed they are, ma'am," answered the shopman. "You just ought to see them when they begin to run."

"And what are you going to be when you grow up, young man?" asked the visitor of the little boy.

"Well," replied the boy, thoughtfully, "after I've been a clergyman to please mother, an' a judge to please father, I'm going to be a brigand chief."

Moving Picture Headaches.

"I cannot go to a moving picture show, a theatre, picnic or any other public gathering without having a severe pain in my head and temples. It cannot be caused from my eyes, for I can see just as good as anybody," remarked a prominent Waco lady.

Our Dr. Georgia examined the lady's eyes and found that her vision was "just as good as anybody's," but the muscles of her eyes had become so badly cramped in their efforts to give her this vision that the entire nervous system was disturbed.

The glasses which he prescribed for this lady did not magnify and make her see better, but they did time relaxed the eye muscles which immediately overcame every bit of the headache and neuralgia pains which she had formerly suffered.

If you can not attend a moving picture show without eye fatigue and subsequently suffering with headache, consult us. Our glasses will afford you the same relief that they have in over thirty thousand other cases in Waco and vicinity.

FRIENDS SAY SHE DON'T LOOK LIKE THE SAME WOMAN

MRS. TROUSDALE SUFFERED SO SHE COULDN'T SLEEP TWO HOURS OUT OF TWENTY-FOUR HOURS—TANLAC RESTORES HEALTH.

"After I had been sent to three different places and taken six different courses of treatment without getting relief from my terrible suffering, I started taking Tanlac and have gained nine pounds and improved so remarkably that people say I am not the same person at all."

The above statement was made a few days ago by Mrs. Myrtle Trousdale, residing at 1601 South Pearl street, Dallas, Texas.

"It would be hard for anyone to imagine the misery that I went through with from attacks of nervous stomach trouble which came on me at times for the last two years," she continued. "Nothing that I ate agreed with me and for two whole months before I started taking Tanlac I had to live on nothing but raw eggs. Even milk soured on my stomach like everything else and formed gas that would bring on one of those awful attacks. My nerves were in such a state that I didn't average sleeping two hours out of twenty-four. When I tried to rest I suffered such agony from pains in my stomach that I couldn't bear even a light cover over my body. Bileousness and constipation troubled me continually and I finally got to the place where I was dozing all the time and still I kept going down hill instead of improving. I didn't have much faith in medicines any more but I read so many articles in the papers about people here who had been benefited by Tanlac that I thought it might help me, so I tried it."

"The two bottles of Tanlac I have already taken have made a wonderful improvement in me. I am not only nine pounds heavier than when I started taking it, but I can eat anything that I want—meats, biscuits, vegetables, onions, salads—and digest it as well as anybody you ever saw. I lay down at night and sleep like a child and get up in the morning bright and cheerful. I can go all day long without a sign of the old nervousness and pain that used to torture me."

Mrs. Trousdale's mother, Mrs. M. E. Richardson, who was present during the interview, here joined in the conversation. "Unless I had seen the results my daughter got from taking Tanlac I wouldn't have believed that any medicine or anything else could have helped her so," she said. "I have been run down and nervous for a long time myself, and knowing how Tanlac has benefited my girl, I expect to take several bottles of it to tone me up for the coming hot summer."

"Our telephone is Automatic M 1672 and my daughter and myself will be glad to tell anyone who wishes to know exactly what we have told you for publication."

Tanlac is sold in Waco by Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Perhaps It's Here

The absence of spot demands and the announcement that the British government would take over additional ships flying the British flag, increased the uneasiness over the national freight situation and added to the weakness of the cotton market yesterday.

Of especial interest during the present campaign for the raising of more foodstuffs in Texas, is the exhibit of the material grown on the Cotton Belt route on display at the Chamber of Commerce. Everything from grain to fruit is shown in this display and it indicates that a great many different kinds of food may be grown in this territory. The entire display is under glass cover and tastefully arranged.

No definite date has been set for the next election of officers for the Chamber of Commerce but, according to all indications, the election will take place some time in May.

H. D. Driscoll, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, returned from Dallas last night. He has been in attendance at the Shreveport rate case and returned to discuss matters with the local shippers. He will return to Dallas for the final details of the case Monday.

Reports from the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass office in regard to the Pullman service inaugurated between Waco and Corpus Christi some time ago, denote the movement is meeting with success. With the coming of summer the travel will begin in large numbers.

Members of the Sons of Hermann bound for South Texas points left Waco on a special at 10:30 o'clock last night, over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas line. This train is the same one that brought delegates from Austin, San Marcos, New Braunfels and San Antonio to the Waco convention. A large per cent of the officers of the lodge live in South Texas, three of them being from San Antonio.

That Waco will be well represented at the "Fiesta" in San Antonio during the present week, is evident from the large sale of tickets at the uptown and depot offices of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas and International and Great Northern railroads. While many have already gone for the week, the heavy travel will come the latter part of the week, Friday being the day scheduled for the "Battle of Flowers," the principal event of the program.

An active campaign for the betterment of the city sidewalks has been inaugurated. Plans are now under way to fix all holes and faulty places in the walks throughout the city, work having already been started on several of the uptown streets. J. B. Strathmore, weight, measures and sidewalk inspector for the city, has this work under supervision.

Only one automobile out of the large number of cars parked between Austin and Franklin streets yesterday afternoon was without a United States flag. This section of Fourth street is known as "Bankers Row" and more than one hundred cars are parked there every day.

"Bluebonnets," the Texas state flower, are to be found in profusion at Cameron park and Highland park. At both places the flowers form beds, acres in size, and to the eye present an appearance of a solid field of blue. Automobile parties, made up of Waco flower lovers, go out each day and bring back loads of bluebonnets, the flowers picked in no wise injuring the beauty of the field.

That the back to the garden movement is rapidly growing is evident from the number of appeals received each week by the secretary of the Y. M. B. L. for aid in the effort to raise more foodstuffs. Five appeals from state and national civic organizations have been received in the last week by this club and assistance has been promised in each instance.

The Central Texas College Choral club, one of the most celebrated negro musical organizations in Texas, left Waco Tuesday night for a singing tour over sections in Central Texas. President J. W. Strong went with the choral club. The trip is made in behalf of the Central Texas college.

Waco Speakers' club will debate the subject of selective conscription tonight. The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. E. R. Miller and J. B. McKinney will have the affirmative, and E. J. Vesey and W. Roy Christian the negative of the proposition.

Mrs. Fred K. Evans died in Dallas early yesterday morning. Word to this effect was received in Waco yesterday. Mrs. Evans was the wife of Fred K. Evans of Kaufman, well known in Waco.

Lions' Club Members to Try Out at Target Practice

An invitation for the members of the Lions club to join the Rifle club has been issued by H. E. Kepler, and a large number of the Lions will join for the target practice. The range is located at the upper end of Scout park and has a number of well arranged targets and firing mounds.

Y. M. B. L. WILL GO TO HOUSTON FOR COMING MEETING

Special Car on H. & T. C. to Leave Sunday Night for Big Session.

Arrangements for a private car to leave Waco over the Houston and Texas Central Sunday night at 11 o'clock, carrying the directors of the Y. M. B. L., to the state young men's business league convention at Houston, were made at a meeting last night. The league was given the authority to send President W. L. Edmond and Secretary W. Roy Christian to the convention and a committee was appointed to stimulate interest among the other members of the club. The committee follows: W. T. Wheeler, chairman; J. W. Carlin, J. C. Killgore, R. E. L. Montgomery and J. J. Hutchison.

The state meet will be composed of the various Y. M. B. L. clubs of Texas and an election of officers will be held. At the present J. M. Carroll of Temple is president.

Nineteen new members were enrolled last night and reports were heard from all outstanding committees. President Edmond stated that $1,880 had been secured in addition to the $22,000 already pledged for the Cotton Palace coliseum and that pledges amounting to over $2,000 were in sight for the coming week.

The president was authorized to confer with the local suffrage club in regard to the entertainment of delegates at the coming state suffrage convention. Forrest E. Goodman, chairman of the agricultural committee, will divide the directors into squads, for the purpose of making trips into the nearby towns to stimulate the interest in the raising of more foodstuffs. The W. O. W. committee on arrangements was thanked by the club for services rendered.

Dormitory Boy Will Be Entertained by Y. M. C. A.

Next Thursday night will mark the beginning of a series of entertainments for the dormitory boys at the Y. M. C. A. Plans for a well arranged program are being worked out and several novel stunts will be pulled off by the roomers. Each man is to escort a lady and a large number of invited guests will be present. At the close of the program a luncheon will be served.

Athletes Training in Gym Series of Contests Coming

Active interest is being shown in the "gym" work at the Y. M. C. A. Old men as well as the young members are coming in for the work in large numbers. This feature is being tried under new plans and is meeting with marked approval. A series of athletic events will be pulled off in the near future.

Senate Meeting Postponed Until Next Tuesday

The Y. M. C. A. senate meeting scheduled to meet last night has been postponed until next Tuesday night and a special program will be carried out. The reason of the postponement was ascribed to the many other events scheduled for the night and it was thought better to hold the sessions next week.

Amazing Power of Bon-Opto To Make Weak Eyes Strong Doctor Says It Strengthens Eyesight 50 per cent in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many who wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without it. I am both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I am out the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of this prescription at home. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Following the conclusion of the regular program at the Hippodrome theatre last night, an address was delivered by H. Richardson of the projection department of the Motion Picture Magazine, for the benefit of the local motion picture machine operators and their friends. He discussed the modern plans for the betterment of the projection of pictures and gave many practical suggestions. Mr. Richardson has been connected with this department of the picture business for many years and has a national reputation.

Y. M. B. L. Asked to Aid in New Soil Surveys

Co-operation has been asked of the Y. M. B. L. in the matter of federal soil surveys for McLennan county by R. Youngblood of the Texas agricultural experiment station. Plans for this campaign will be worked out as soon as possible. The state station will ask the legislature for an appropriation of $7,500 to be used in co-operation with the federal appropriation. As the matter stands now, only two surveys can be made each year.

Report on Cotton Planting Shows Progress Is Made

Reports from the Southern states, including Texas, as to the progress made in the planting of crops was received yesterday at the local cotton exchange. The report in part follows: "The cotton states are preparing the soil and moderate progress has been made during the month of April. In some sections of Southern Texas planting was delayed on account of lack of moisture, but in other sections of the state where rains fell last week the work was pushed rapidly. Early planted cotton in Texas while good looks yellow and has a poor stand. Cotton is up good and growing well in Florida. Chopping has begun in Georgia and the plants are up in South Carolina and Central Alabama."

Dollins Proves His Offer; Takes Hermanns for Ride

Due to other arrangements having been made by the Hermanns Sons, the auto ride scheduled to take place yesterday morning was postponed until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At that hour a large number of automobiles were on hand and every member of the order wishing to take a trip around the city were carried out for a ride. Mayor John Dollins originated the plan and helped to arrange for the car owners of the city to furnish the machines.

Wired to Go Quick BUT DID NOT DO IT

Instead Perkins of Dallas Shipped Vitalitas to Dangerously Ill Father.

"I got a wire that my father, aged 70, of Waterloo, Ala., was at the point of death and requesting me to come if I would see him alive again," said Mr. J. A. Perkins, a well known carpenter of 622 S. Edgefield St., Dallas, Texas.

"I was unable to make the trip, but instead bought two bottles of Vitalitas and expressed them to him. My faith in Vitalitas was such that I knew if it got to him in time it might save his life. About two weeks later I received a letter from him stating he had taken one bottle and was starting on the second and felt better than he had in a year. He is still living and the chances are he will live years yet."

Mr. Perkins then adds: "I had, for a number of years what is commonly called hay fever, also a severe stomach trouble. It seemed I was always constipated. In January, 1914, I heard of Vitalitas and decided to try it. I got two bottles and after I had taken two was not bothered with my stomach and my bowels became normal. I went through last summer without a trace of hay fever, something I have not done for years. I believe in Nature and Vitalitas is Nature."

As a tonic and corrective Vitalitas should be in every home. You can get Vitalitas at Powers-Kelly Drug Store and all other druggists.

Home Folks. What Texas People Say

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the herbal remedy which has had such a fine reputation for the past forty years, is endorsed by many well known residents of Texas. Every day more and more people are coming to realize that this is a standard medicine, and is safe to take. It contains no alcohol or narcotics. The ingredients are printed on the package. It is to be had at every drug store in the land in either liquid or tablet form.

Mr. W. J. Johnson, residing at 407 Conrad street, Palestine, Texas, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with good results, and would recommend it to friends that need a blood tonic."

"My children were all run-down in health and 'Golden Medical Discovery' helped them."

Mr. W. E. McQueen of Longview, Texas, Route 5, Box 59, says: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and found great benefit from the same. I can recommend it to all suffering humanity. It is just as good now as fifty years ago."

Mr. T. J. Allen of Seagraves, Texas, says: "I wish to state to those who may have rheumatism that I am 45 years old and have had rheumatism most all of my life. In executing my duties as a peace officer of this state in the winter of 1910, I was exposed to some very severe weather, which brought on a very severe attack, in fact, it was so bad that I could not ride horseback and was compelled to abandon my duties for awhile. I then began a search for a permanent cure, which I did not find until I learned of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. I began taking these tablets about ten months ago and am satisfied that I am cured. I wish to say in conclusion that I cannot be loud enough in my praise of Anuric."

Simply ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. Every package of Anuric is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general reconstructer.
